

Cowboy Christmas Concert

You know them, you love them and they are back to give you an afternoon filled with Cowboy Christmas music and poetry. Hugh McLennan, Matt Johnston, Butch Falk and special guest “Old Friends” Colin Williams and Doug Hathaway will be performing at the North Thompson Fall Fair Hall on Saturday afternoon December 9th at 1:00 p.m.

Hugh's knack for setting the stage, connecting with the audience and presenting the performers in the best possible light has kept him in wide demand as a professional emcee for events all over North America.

With his ol' guitar and an amazing collection of songs, poems and stories Hugh has entertained audiences from theaters in Branson, Missouri to campfires and trail rides in the Canadian west.

McLennan is among that elite group and his voice is instantly recognizable to anyone who listens to local radio. Along with producing his syndicated Spirit of the West show and doing radio and television commercials, McLennan has travelled all over North America as a sought-after live entertainer, singing, telling stories and reciting his poems.

For more than a decade, Matt Johnston has performed at cowboy festivals, concerts and gatherings, sharing his love of the cowboy culture through song. He was twice nominated for the Rising Star Award by the Academy of Western Artists and once for Male Western vocalist.

A featured performer at many cowboy gatherings and festivals in Canada and the U.S., Butch possesses a unique ability to bring the most descriptive cowboy lyrics to life. His music literally transports the listener to another place and time. A dynamic contemporary performer, Butch Falk is always true to the cowboy spirit in all of us.

Special guests, “Old Friends” Doug Hathaway and Colin Williams discovered while working together, they shared a passion for classic country music. Presently they share their music with many seniors living in retirement facilities in Kamloops where they have been very well received. They are excited about performing in Barriere and sharing some Country Classic Christmas songs.

Come out and join us on Saturday Afternoon Dec 9th at 1:00 p.m. at the North Thompson Fall Fair Hall. Tickets will be available at Barriere Country Feeds for $10.00 per person. Proceeds will be donated to the Barriere Food Bank.

For more information, please contact Connie at 250-299-3702